Message from Rector

I am glad to know that the participants of 72nd Senior Staff Course (SSC) are going to publish a souvenir. I believe this publication will cherish the sweet memories of the course.

In this quick changing world, the prime challenge that we face is "Change Management". public administration, at present, demands good management practices, exposure to critical new perspectives and positive approaches in management. It is my firm belief that the participants, after completion of this course, would be able to render better service to the stakeholders.

I am aware that the course was intensely compact and the schedule was quite busy. Despite this fact, the participants have certainly worked very hard to make this souvenir a success. I would like to thank all those who have scarified their personal leisure for this souvenir and also wish all the participants a great success in their personal and professional life.

Message from Course Director

It is, indeed encouraging that despite tremendous pressure of various training activities with tight schedule, the participants of the 72nd Senior Staff Course are going to ink a souvenir on the eve of their course ending. Such an initiative, I believe, shall work in their heart as software of sweet memories of the events and activation they experienced during their stay at BPATC. I hope, the souvenir would strengthen the bondage amongst them and also with BPATC.

The BPATC has designed SSC to focus the evolving changes in management practices around the globe so that it adds latest knowledge and skills to the participating top management officers of the civil services and defense services of Bangladesh. It facilitates them to personal contribution to the success of their organization. SSC offers an opportunity to the participants as it leads them learn new management concepts, explore best management practices, get exposure to critical new perspectives and master new skills. Moreover, it provides the participants an opportunity to have access to contemporary thinking, exchange ideas and gain insights from a diverse range of peers.

I would like to put on record my sincere appreciation to the valued participants for their relentless efforts to make the course a success.

Course Director

Note from the Editor

Twenty-Nine bright officers got together at BPATC on 25 July afternoon. Ornamental orchid with their heavenly beauty welcomed us at the reception corridor silently. Romantic living style initially made us little confused but designed course activities made us hardly staying the room. Morning started with exercise by the greetings of morning birds and sweet fragrances of flowers. Smiling face of the faculty members and modern styled classes in the syndicate room made the total curriculum very user friendly. With all these blending of nature, we all participants got emotionally involved together...

The Senior Staff Course of BPATC is a very intensive training programme. We are fortunate enough to participate in this useful training. We had both individual and group work to complete the course. As a result it has created a strong bondage among the participants. We expect that the participants will have ever lasting friendship all through our life. This Souvenir "Forward March" is small but worthy effort to cement this friendship further.

I would like to express my heartiest thanks to course management for their tremendous co-operation for publishing this souvenir. We are grateful to the respected Rector, BPATC Mr. A.K.M. Abdul Awal Mazumder for his valuable guidance and advice. I also take the opportunity to offer my sincere thanks to Course Director Md. Mahmudul Hassan, PhD, MDS, the Course Coordinators Abdul Baki, Director (Project) and Mohammad Moshior Rahman, Director (Physical Education) for their personal involvement and co-operation in this regard. I also take the opportunity to thank the members of souvenir committee & the participants who actively helped us in this humble publication.

I hope 72nd Senior Staff Course will be a march forward in our life and this souvenir will make a bridge among all the participants and help us to be attached all the times to come.

OUR BANGLA HOUSE IN AFRICA

Colonel Abdullah Al Mamun psc, G

That was my second tenure in Congo as peacekeeper in 2012/13. I also served here in 2003-2004. Within this span of time there had been significant development in Uganda and Bangladesh; I too have attained a higher rank in the military. But the development in Congo is slower than that of others.

When I first arrived at Entebbe Airport, Uganda on 14 October 2012, I noticed all positive changes around the Airport. Then we went to Bangla House-2 which was only 3 kilometers away from airport and near Andarita Beach, Uganda. We have two houses named Bangla House-1 and Bangla House-3. These are basically Rest Houses used as the transit accommodation for more than two thousands peacekeepers deployed all over Congo. During our 1st mission in 2003-2004 we had no such arrangement and we used to stay in Pakistan House and Andarita Beach Hotel. Now we have our own houses in Uganda and most importantly those are near the beach where we used to stay in hotels previously during our transit and holidays.

Now, we feel proud when we see the billboard just on the main highway from Entebbe to Kampala showing its presence. For more than a decade we (Bangladeshis) are in Congo. Our peacekeepers had enormous sacrifice (even the death ten peace keepers) in restoration of peace in Congo. Many Congolese can fluently speak in Bengali. We are respected by the Congolese for our discipline specially for our attitude shown towards their women and children. Most of the Congolese enjoy our hospitality when they join us in various religious and national festivals. They just love Bangladeshis (us) and BANGLADESH as expressed on many occasions. In reciprocation we may contribute to them in their development specially through utilization of their vast unutilized land. As a Bangladeshi I also wait for a time when we will see our countrymen in Congo and Uganda along with our embassies. Then we would have many Bangla Houses in Africa. LET US HOPE FOR THE BEST.

Behind the Macro Mirror : A reality

Khondoker Mostafizur Rahman

It was a rainy day and heavy downpour flooded almost all parts of the little town Patuakhali, a southern district of Bangladesh. I moved for an eviction drive with a vehicle of police. It was around 12 (noon) about seventeen years back right from now. Then I was serving as first class Magistrate in that district. We reached the spot some half kilometer away from the D.C office. A shanty made of straw and polythene; situated on a piece of Govt. khas land, on the side of a road within municipality area, was the target of our eviction. Rainwater was all around the hut. Due to incessant heavy rainfall it was hard to get out of the vehicle. The inmates of the shanty were ordered to come out. But no sign of compliance became visible. Being ordered by the magistrate, the hired laborers approached and began to demolish the structure.

Hearing heart-rending outcry, I pulled down the window glass of the jeep and peeped to see actually what was happening. In the midst of torrent rain, a middle aged man, his wife and three minor offspring were found coming out with their belongings they had. Torn/patched-up clothes, blanket, katha, utensils, jars, bowls, sandals, pillows, pots, etc. they were carrying on their heads/shoulders/hands. But it was difficult for the family to manage all the belongings. Having no preparation for move, no extra/hired man power, no vehicle, how tremendous and unmanageable the house shifting task was? The scenario was alike: when the man tries to put pillows on the head, the blanket placed earlier on the shoulders falls down, as he tries to manage the shoulders, the hand-grips get loose letting the utensils sliding down. Everybody, other than the youngest kid (1 year), was carrying something he/she could.

The youngest kid (aged about 1 year) was with her mother's waist holding round her mother's neck. The lady was also carrying some household things in her hands and even on her head. All on a sudden, the sky-rending scream of the kid caught my attention. I noticed a pair of red sandals of the kid floating in the rain water on the premises. The lady was trying again and again to pick up the sandals but failed. The little kid was insisting her mother on picking up the sandals, the most valuable article, to the kid. Being disappointed after repeated try, the woman with her family left the scene leaving the sandals on the premises amid heavy rainfall. The innocent baby continued its weeping looking back at its sandal. The rootless family moved for an uncertain destination. Then I was in deep thought pondering the misery of that helpless and have nots family. Surprising enough, the family did not request me even for a single time not to evict them. Suddenly a laughter coming from an adjacent house broke the silence. I looked and found a young girl with some other women smiling standing on the lobby (corridor) on the 1st floor of the building and seemed to have been happy.

I left the spot with a heavy heart and reported the matter to my next higher boss. Henceforth my boss took the telephone receiver, addressed someone on the other end as "sir" and communicated the eviction message. Boss thanked me for my heroic (?) deed. Later I came to know, the building where some smiling faces were seen, next to the eviction spot, belonged to one of the close relatives of a Joint Secretary of the Land Ministry to whom my boss conveyed the eviction message. Behind that eviction, the role of that Joint Secretary was prominent as the shanty was creating nuisance for his relative's residence. Indeed, the shanty was evicted not to recover govt. land but to beautify the residence of the Joint Secretary's relative.

Nobody cared for the misery of the landless and rootless family which was evicted. It is / was the principle of every government to provide Khas land to the landless family. Even there is / was standing circular issued by the Ministry of Land not to evict the homestead of a landless family from the govt. Khas land. But that circular was seriously and deliberately violated at the behest of a Land Ministry bureaucrat. I don't know whether that piece of recovered land still is in govt. possession. But my intuition says "No, it has been grabbed -legally or illegally." Because the eviction drive was carried out for the beautification of an adjacent building blessed with the favor of a Joint Secretary.

The wailing face of the little child and her small red sandals are still vivid in my mind whenever and wherever I see a kid wearing red sandals. I can't forget it -- not possible for me. The incident reminded me the proverb "What is sport to you is death to me."

So, look at the macro mirror to see your lovely face. But to see the bitter reality, look at the Behind of The Macro Mirror.

Curbing Corruption: Hong Kong Strategy.

Md. Taslimul Islam

The Hong Kong Independent Commission Against Corruption (ICAC) is an example of visible strategy in curbing corruption. Almost all academics of corruption cite it as a successful strategy. Klitgaard et al (2000) has given an elaborate description of the formation, activities, techniques and success of ICAC in their book 'Corrupt Cities: A practical guide to cure and prevention'.

The ICAC was set up by the Hong Kong's Governor Murray MacLehose with a view to curbing corruption in the police force, which was plunged into the corruption in the early 1970s. Every previous effort to get the police rid of corruption failed because the police force's internal anti-corruption office was itself corrupted. Murray MacLehose abolished the police Anti-corruption Office; set up a new organisation named the Independent Commission Against Corruption and placed it under his direct control. Though ICAC received a powerful mandate from the Governor to investigate, it concentrated on prevention and citizen participation at the beginning.

The ICAC had three components: the Operations Department, which was entrusted with the task of investigations; the Corruption Prevention Department (CPD), which evaluated the vulnerable points of various agencies and helped them to take remedial measures; the Community Relations Department (CRD), which involved the people in the fight against corruption.

Every department of ICAC adopted various innovative techniques. The Operations Department resorted to the technique of prosecuting high level offenders which has been termed as 'frying big fishes'. It scared the low level perpetrators. The extradition of a chief superintendent from Hong Kong, who was accused of corruption, sent a signal to all high and level corrupt officials that the Governors fighting against corruption was not a rhetorical but practical.

The Corruption Prevention Department adopted the technique to evaluate the activities of various agencies, finding out the defects and giving the agencies opportunity to get credit by suggesting a remedy. If any agency did not pay heed to the suggestion of ICAC then it had to face wide publicity and strong action. To detect the points of corruption of various types of agencies the CPD recruited specialists. It set up two divisions - a people division and a property division. The people division dealt with services and personnel functions; and the property division worked with contracts, buildings, and land. Together, the CPD and government agencies identified areas of excessive or unregulated discretion, poor control systems, and unenforceable rules and regulations.

The Community Relations Department took various techniques to mobilize citizen participation and support. It set up five citizen advisory committees to guide and monitor it. The CRD established local offices to gather information about corruption from civil society as well as to engage in grassroots educational activities about corruption's evils. It also created school programs, publicity campaigns, filmstrips, TV dramas, a radio call-in show, special pamphlets, and exhibitions.

The results were remarkable. Systematic corruption in the police force was broken. Moreover, corruption throughout Hong Kong was reduced. In Hong Kong, city services became more efficient, and the people of Hong Kong had new ways to participate in and influence their government (Klitgaard et al,2000).

The Role of Police in UN Peace keeping Mission

*Md. Manzur Kader
khan PPM*

Introduction :

The United Nations was established after the 2nd world war to save the succeeding generations from the scourge of war. The main purpose of the UN is to maintain international peace and security, and to that end; to take effective measures for the prevention and removal of threats to peace and for the suppression of acts of aggression or other breaches of peace and to bring about the peaceful means and in conformity with the principles of justice and international law and adjustment or situation of international disputes or situation which might lead to a breach of the peace.

Function and powers of the UN Security Council:

In order to ensure prompt and effective action by the UN, its members confer the UN Security Council primary responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security.

Pacific Settlement of disputes:

The parties of any dispute, the continuance of which is likely to endanger the maintenance of international peace and security, shall first of all seek or solution by negotiation, enquiry, mediation, conciliation, arbitration, judicial settlement resort to regional agencies or arrangements or other peaceful means of their own choice. The Security Council shall, when it deems necessary, call upon the parties to settle their disputes by such means.

The Security Council may investigate any disputes or any situation, which might lead to international friction, or since rise to dispute, in order to determine whether the continuance of the disputes or situation is likely to endanger the maintenance of international peace and security.

United Nations Peacekeeping Force (UNPKF)

To maintain international peace and security the UN peacekeeping force was established on 30th may 1948. The UNPKF has following functions:

- (a) To rescue the victims of war and ensure their safety and security.
- (b) To provide shelter for the refugees.
- (c) To safe guard the interests of the minorities and ensure their safety.
- (d) Impose embargo on the aggressor state.
- (e) De-mining the conflict area and disarmament of the parties in the war etc.

The soldiers of the UNPKF are allowed to carry light weapons and use of minimum force only for self-defense. In case of special need the UNPKF also provide humanitarian aid, monitoring and conducting election, service in the civilian sector. The UNPKF was awarded Noble prize in 1988 for performing risky job in the service of peace.

Police in UN Peacekeeping operations:

The United Nations has been deploying Police officer in UN Peace keeping missions since 1960's. Traditionally, the UN mandate for Police components of peace keeping operations was limited to, monitoring or observing the situation and reporting.

Today, UN civilian Police component is entrusted with the responsibilities for internal law enforcement in Kosovo, East Timor and Darfur.

All activities of the Police components of the UN Peace keeping operations are supported by the Police Division of the UN Department of peacekeeping operations in New York.

Qualities of the UN Police:

To meet the challenge of the mission area, the UN Police should possess following qualities and requirements:

- (1) Minimum 5 Years active service in the national Police force.
- (2) Valid National driving license and ability to drive 4X4 vehicles.
- (3) Fluency in written and spoken English/ French.
- (4) Ability to use small firearms as required in a particular mission.
- (5) Should possess good and sound health so that they can serve in the harsh weather condition anywhere in the world.

Composition of Selection Assistance Team (SAT):

The UN Selection Assistance Team (SAT) will be made up of a representative from Police Unit of UN- DPKO and adequate member of UN civilian trainers from the different ongoing UN missions. The UN-SAT officers will conduct following examinations/tests for selections of civilian Police monitors according to the international Policing standard:-

A. English Test

- I) Reading comprehension.
- II) Listening comprehension.
- III) Report writing.
- IV) Viva-Voice/Oral Interview

B. Driving Test

- I) Vehicle Handling Test
- II) Garaging /Reversing Test
- III) Stop Test/speed Test
- IV) Parking Test
- V) Road Test

C. Firing Test

- I) Weapon(Pistol) handling Test
- II) Firing from 5 meters (5 rounds)
- III) Firing from 7 meters (5 rounds)

Dress Rules for UN Police

In the mission area, UN civilian Police officers are required to wear their national Police Uniform with the UN logo all times while on duty. All Police monitors while on duty in uniform shall wear the UN blue beret.

The Rights and privilege of the UN Police

The rights and responsibilities of the UN Police I depend on the UN mandate regarding a particular mission area. The UN Police shall enjoy inviolability shall not be subject to any form of arrest or detention and shall have immunity from local criminal jurisdiction. However Civpol officers must obey the regulations of United Nations. UN Police has authority to have access to all facilities, records, activities and proceedings of the local Police and Criminal Justice System including prisons and courts.

In addition to their salary in their respective countries the UN Police monitors are entitled to have a handsome amount of mission subsistence allowance (MSA) every month.

The duties and responsibilities of the UN Police

The main duties of the UN Police are monitoring the activities of the local Police. The following tasks are very important:

- 1) To accompany the local Police on patrols.
- 2) To observe the conduct and performance of the local Police and judicial investigative authorities during the arrest, detention and interrogation of persons charged with a crime, the general handling of prisoners and the house search.
- 3) To attend the crime scene.
- 4) To conduct independent patrols and observe the presence or absence of local Police.
- 5) To conduct investigations as required, where the inquiry by the local investigative body is seen to be inadequate.
- 6) To observe gathering, rallies and demonstration.
- 7) To monitor the movements of refugees, displaced person, returnees and the exchange of prisoner of war and the bodies of those killed in the conflict.

- 8) To follow investigations against minorities and monitor the final results.
- 9) To assist humanitarian Aid agencies and UN civil affairs component.
- 10) To help in diffusing inter communal tensions
- 11) To ensure peace and tranquility at voter registration offices and during voting.
- 12) To visit prison and monitor treatment of prisoners
- 13) The formed Police Unit (FPU) has special responsibilities to guard and secure the key point installations (KPI).
- 14) To assist in the establishment and training of the local Police Force in accordance to the international Policing standard based on principles of democratic Policing / Community Policing.

Points to Ponder

- 1) UN Police monitors must remain neutral and impartial and display impartiality to all parties in disputes.
- 2) Be aware that local employees and interpreters may have vested interest in matters, which require wise handling.
- 3) Be respectful of your responsibilities when using UN vehicles and equipments.
- 4) Do not take part in any illegal activities.
- 5) Do not consume alcohol; drunk driving would be a big problem.
- 6) Do not indulge yourself into saying or doing anything, which could reflect poorly upon you, your own country or the UN.
- 7) UNPOL officers should not involve in any illegal sexual activities. Take a special care dealing with the women and children.

Conclusion:

While Peacekeeping was not envisioned in the UN charter, it has grown to become the flagship enterprise of the United Nations. Its most visible and iconic part is the blue helmets, a multinational force in service of peace. The UN Police plays a crucial role in UN peace operations.

Today, UN Peacekeeping operations span the globe. As of March 2015, the UN Department of Peacekeeping Operations manages 16 Peace operations, composed of nearly 1,26,247 authorized Military, Police and civilian Personnel.

The UN civilian Police is playing a very vital role in UN Peacekeeping missions all over the world. The members of Bangladesh Police have been participating in the UN Peacekeeping operations since 1989. So far, Bangladesh Police have participated in 21 UN Peacekeeping Missions. Presently, Bangladesh is one of the largest contributors of Police to the UN Peacekeeping Mission worldwide. Bangladesh Police has earned a high level of reputation for their commitment and dedication in the UN Mission.

 The writer is the Deputy Inspector General of Police. He worked in UN Mission in former Yugoslavia (UNPROFOR), Kosovo (UNMIK), Sudan (UNMIS) and in South Sudan (UNMISS). He is awarded UN medals in the service for peace and President's Police Medal (PPM) for outstanding contribution in Crime Control.*

ডিনার সেরে নাসের ব্যাগের জিনিসপত্রগুলো দেখে নিল। পাসপোর্ট, বিমানের টিকেট, ওয়ালেট ও অন্যান্য টুকটাকি জিনিসপত্র নেয়া হল কি না। রওনা দেয়ার সময় মেয়ে জিজ্ঞাস করল, ‘বাবা তোমার সাথে কে কে যাচ্ছে, কোথায় থাকবে?’ নাসের বলল ‘বিভিন্ন সংস্থার মোট ২৪ জন যাবে। সবাইকে চিনি না। থাকব এ্যাম্বেসেডর হোটেলে ২ সিটের রুমে। লাগেজ হাতে নাসের ঘর থেকে বের হল। ছেলে-মেয়েদের কাছ থেকে বিদায় নিয়ে গাড়ীতে উঠল। স্ত্রী লীনা পাশের সীটে। সে বিমান বন্দর পর্যন্ত এগিয়ে দিবে। নাসেরের পাজারোটি বিমান বন্দর অভিমুখে ছুটে চলছে। নাসের লীনার হাত নিজের হাতের মধ্যে নিল। নিজের দিকে ও ছেলে-মেয়েদের পড়ালেখার দিকে খেয়ার রাখতে বলল। তাদের কার জন্য কি আনতে হবে জেনে নিল। বিমান বন্দরে পৌঁছে স্ত্রীর সাথে পারিবারিক কথাবার্তা সেরে তার নিকট হতে বিদায় নিয়ে ভিতরে ডুকে পড়ল। বোর্ডিং জন্য বেশ কিছু সময় অপেক্ষা করতে হল। বিমানের উঠার পর মনে হল লীনার কথা, ছেলে-মেয়েদের কথা। ওরা কাওয়াই নদীর উপর ব্রীজটি দেখতে চেয়েছিল। কিন্তু স্কুল কলেজের ছুটির রুটিন না মেলায় এবার তাদের আনা যায় নি। বাসায় কথাটা উঠলে লীনা বলেছিল, “এবার তুমি একাই যাও, সামনে ঈদের ছুটিতে না হয় আমাদের সবাইকে নিয়ে যেও”। আরও কত কি মনে পড়ল। এ রকম নানান কিছু ভাবতে ভাবতে সীটের উপর ঘুমিয়ে পড়ল। বিমান রানওয়ে স্পর্শ করলে বাইরে তাকিয়ে দেখল বেশ বেলা হয়েছে।

বিমান বন্দরে কিছু ফরমাটি সে হোটেলের উদ্দেশ্যে রওনা হল। ঘন্টা খানেকের মধ্যে গাড়ী হোটেলে এসে পৌঁছল। রিসিপশনে গিয়ে পরিচয় বলার পর রিসিপশনিষ্ট তালিকা দেখে রুমের চাবি দিল এবং রুম নম্বর বলল ১১/২৬। নাসের একাদশ তলায় ২৬ নং কক্ষের সামনে আসল। দরজা খুলে ভিতরে ঢুকল। ২ সিটের রুম। একটি সীটে কেউ একজন উঠেছে। জানালার পাশের সীট খালি। নাসের সীটের পাশে ব্যাগ রেখে সোফায় বসল। জানালা বাইরে দৃষ্টি গেল। শহরের পিছনেই মাথা উচু করে দাঁড়িয়ে আছে সবুজ পাহাড়। শহরে সিমসাম পরিবেশ তার চোখ জুড়িয়ে দিল। প্রশান্ত মনে নাসের উঠে দাঁড়াল। লাগেজ খুলে কাপড় চোপড় বের করতে শুরু করল। ওয়াশরুমের দরজা খোলার শব্দে সেদিকে চোখ পড়তেই তার মাথায় বাজ পড়ল। নিজের চোখকেই বিশ্বাস করতে পারছিল না। কি দেখছে সে! দেবী না মানবী! ঘাড়ের উপর ভেজা চুল। বুকের উপর আধাভেজা টাওয়েল। নাসেরের মাথা ঘুরে গেল। আর কিছু দেখা হল না। দৌড়ে কোন রকমে রুম হতে বেরিয়ে এল।

উদ্ভূত পরিস্থিতিতে শামীমও হতবাক হয়ে গেল। কি করবে বুঝতে পারছিল না। দ্রুত ড্রেস চেন্স করে নিচ্ছিল। এমন সময় টেবিলের উপর রাখা নাসেরের সেল ফোনটি বেজে উঠল। শামীম একবার তাকিয়ে কাপড় ঠিকঠাক করতে মনোনিবেশ করল। কিন্তু ফোনটি থামছিল না। বেজেই চলল। শামীম দরজা খুলে বাইরে কাউকে দেখতে না পেয়ে শেষ পর্যন্ত ফোনটা রিসিভ করল। “হ্যালো” বলতেই ওপার হতেই জানতে চাইল নাসের কোথায়। শামীম বলল এই মাত্র বাইরে গেছে। রং নম্বর ভেবে লীনা সংযোগটি কেটে দিল। ডায়াল লিষ্টে নাম্বার দেখে নিল। ঠিকইত আছে। নাসেরের নাম্বারেই ফোন করেছে। তাহলে মহিলার কণ্ঠ কেন? মহিলা ফোন ধরল কেন? নাসেরের রুমে অন্য মহিলা থাকে কি করে? লীনা প্রচণ্ড ধাঁধায় পড়ে গেল। সে আবার ফোন দিল। শামীম রিসিভ করতেই লীনা বলল, “আপনি কে?” শামীম নিজের নাম বলল। লীনা বলল, “এখানে কি করছেন?” শামীম বলল, “আমি এ রুমেই উঠেছি”। লীনার মাথায় রক্ত উঠে গেল। কোন রকমে নিজেকে সামলে নিয়ে বলল, “নাসের কই? ওকে ফোন দেন”। শামীম কথা না বাড়িয়ে রুম বয়কে ডেকে ফোনটা নাসেরের কাছে নিয়ে যেতে বলল।

নীচতলায় রিসিপশনের সামনে এসে নাসির একটু থামল। সে চিন্তা করল এটা কিভাবে হল এবং কেন হল। এমন সময় এটেনডেন্টের কথায় সম্মত ফিরে পেল। “আর ইউ মিঃ নাসের, স্যার? হিয়ার ইজ ইউর ফোন কল” বলেই সেল ফোনটা তার হাতে ধরিয়ে দিল। “হ্যালো” বলতেই ও পাশ হতে কর্কশ স্বরে ভেসে আসল লীনার গলা “তুমি যে এত নীচ, এত কুৎসিত তা আমার জানা ছিল না, বাইরে গিয়ে নোংরামী কর। আর বাসায় ফিরে সাধু সাজ। কাকে সাথে নিয়ে বিদেশে গেছ? তোমার হোটেল রুমে অন্য মেয়ে কেন? দেশে ফিরে আস, তারপর তোমার সাথে আমার বোঝাপড়া হবে। সবার সামনে তোমার মুখোশ খুলে দিব”। নাসের আর শুনতে চাইছিল না। লাইনটা কেটে যাওয়ায় কোন রকমে বেঁচে গেল।

নাসেরের মাথায় কিছুই খেলছিল না। একটার পর একটা কি হচ্ছে এসব। জীবনে কত মামলার তদন্ত করেছে। কত ক্রু বিহীন ঘটনার পিছনের ঘটনা বের করেছে। কিন্তু আজ কিছুতেই কিছু বুঝছে না। রিসিপশনে বলতেই তারা কাগজপত্র দেখল। শামীম আহম্মদকে পুরুষ ভেবেই নাসেরকে ঐ রুমে পাঠিয়েছে। তারা যখন দুঃখ প্রকাশ করছিল নাসেরের মাথায় তখন একটা চিন্তাই ঘুরপাক খাচ্ছিল “দেশে ফিরে লীনাকে কিভাবে সামলাবে”।

BPATC AT A GLANCE

- ❑ Bangladesh Public Administration Training Centre (BPATC) was established in 1984 at a distance of 28 kilometers north-west from the city centre Dhaka.
- ❑ The Centre is headed by a Rector who is a Secretary to the Government followed by Six Members of the Directing Staff (MDS) of the rank of Additional Secretary/Joint Secretary to the Government. Each MDS heads a Division.
- ❑ Each division consists of a number of departments headed by a Director of the rank of Deputy Secretary. Designated faculty members below them are Deputy Directors, Medical Officers, Librarians, Assistant Directors, Evaluation Officers, Publication Officer, Senior Research Officers and Research Officers.
- ❑ The Centre has four Regional Centres called Regional Public Administration Training Centres (RPATC) located at four old Divisional Headquarters.
- ❑ BPATC enjoys substantial autonomy in both financial and administrative matters. The twelve-member Board of Governors (BOG) chaired by a Minister provides general policy directions as and when required.
- ❑ BPATC conducts core training courses, short training courses and special training courses.
- ❑ Core training courses are Foundation Training Course (FTC), Advanced Course on Administration and Development (ACAD) and Senior Staff Course (SSC).
- ❑ FTC is designed for the new entrants to the Bangladesh Civil Service, while ACAD is for Deputy Secretaries and their equivalent officers of defense services and public sector departments.
- ❑ SSC is designed for the Joint Secretaries to the government and their equivalent officers from defense services and public sector departments.
- ❑ Policy Planning Management Course (PPMC) for the Additional Secretaries and Lunch time/ Dinner time Seminar for the Secretaries are also arranged
- ❑ Short and special training courses focus on the development of the specific clientele from officials of cadre services, public sector departments, and NGOs.
- ❑ BPATC carries out research in the fields relevant to public service management and provides consultancy services to the government.
- ❑ Publishes journals, periodicals, research reports
- ❑ Organises joint programmes with other training institutes, academies and universities at home and abroad.
- ❑ Networks through e-library
- ❑ BPATC Organises international programmes/Seminars/Workshops.
